100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Was Committed,

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1819.

Boston, September 7.

It is announced from several quarters, though we know not on what authority, that the 45th parallel of latitude has been determined, by the commissioners for settling the northern boundary of the United States to run some distance south of the place where it has been formerly reported to run: and consequently that the fortifications at Rouse's Point on lake Champlain, on which some hundred thousand dollars have been expended by the government, besides an extensive tract of territory, inhabited by citizens of the United States, will fall within the jurisdiction of Lower Canada. The Centinel states that the line has fallen a mile and a half to the southward of Rouse's Point. But the Gazette of yesterday makes the loss to the United States much more extensive that had been apprehended. It is fully ascertained, says that paper, that the boundary line between the United States and Canada runs several degrees south of the military works at Rouse's Point." We hope there may be some mistake in this, as a single degree would cut us off from half the state of Vermont, and the greater part of lake Champlain.

Counterfeit imitations of the half dollar coin of the United States, are in circulation. One of them which had been received and payed away in the course of business, was returned to-day by a gentleman who has left it at this office. [Balt. Fed. Gaz.

ACCIDENTS.

The steam boats Etna and Pennsylvania met about 16 miles from Philadelphia this morning, and in the endeavor to give room to each other both turned the same way, in which the Etna's bow struck the Pennsylvania's wheel, broke it, and so injured some of her works that she was obliged to anchor. The Etna's bow received considerable injury, but she was able to proceed. These boats belong to the same line.

As the Philadelphia was coming from Trenton, she ran on a rock between Bristol and Treuton, and knocked a large hole in her bottom; boards were immediately nailed over and oakum stuffed in, so as to enable her to proceed to Philadelphia. [Ibid.

MAIL ROBBERS.

On Wednesday evening last an attempt was made by Henri, Bertrand and Mauric, to escape from the state prison at Trenton, at the moment when the keeper went in with their supper, he having fastened only one of the doors. They seized and gagged the keeper, took the key from him, escaped to the outer walls, and were in a fair way of making their escape by tying two short ladders together with their blankets. The alarm bell brought assistance to the spot, the prisoners were retaken, and confined in separate cells.

New-York Board of Health, September 11, 1819.

No new cases of Malignant Fever has been reported this day. By order of the Board. J MORTON, Sec'y.

Baltimore, September 14.

The number of new cases of fever reported to the Health office yesterday morning were fifty-two. Of this number 22 are reported by Dr Clendinen, whose report comprehends a period of 48 hours. This increase of cases will excite no surprize when it is known that many families still obstinately remain in and near the infected district, notwithstanding the earnest and repeated representations of the Board of Health to the contrary. MORTALITY AT DARIEN.

A letter received by a gentleman in this city, from Savannah, 5th inst. says, "the Spotted Fever has made its appearance at Darien—there are 51 persons sick out of 129. I am sorry to say that Isaac Sasportas was buried on Thursday, after five days illness. The people are panic struck, and alarmed out of their wits. The scene of of distress is hardly credible."

Extract of a letter received in New-York per schooner Good Hope, dated Mogadore, Jul. 27, 1819.

"This place and vicinity still continue healthy, notwithstanding the almost daily intercourse with the infected parts of the empire. We cherish a hope that Divine Providence will command the destroying angel to sheathe his sword, and that this city will not be called upon to witness the scenes of 1799.

"By late accounts from Fez, and Tangiers, the plague had abated of somewhat of its virulence at the former, and was confined to about 15 or 20 cases at the latter place.

On the 12th inst. a letter was received from a Monsieur Cocheles, dated Wednoon, 5th inst. which stated that he was supercargo of a vessel called the Sophie de Lisbon, which was wrecked on the Arab coast about two months previous; part of the crew had escaped in their boats, but himself and five others were captured and held in slavery. The Sophie was from Nantz, bound to Brazil, where Monsieur C. was about to form a mercantile establishment. The crew and passengers were French and Portuguese. At this date no measures had been taken by the consuls of those governments for the redemption of these unfortunate people.

PLEASING ANECDOTE.

A drayman on Friday evening last, deposited at Mr. Charles Diffenderfer's warehouse, market-street, a couple of barrels of bread which two of our benevolent citizens had bestowed for the use of the poor removed from Fell's Point to Hampstead Hill. Mr. D. asked him what was his charge for the drayage?—"J——s preserve me," said the man solemnly, and drawing back, "not once cent, sir.—Heaven send them a plenty!"

Warm hearted child of Erin, thy "mite" is accepted, and will be annointed by HIM who decides upon the motives of men!

Shawneetown, (Ill.) Aug. 21.

The Ohio river is perhaps at a lower ebb now than has been known for many years. Hardly has a boat of any kind passed this place since the latter end of May. Several steam boats have been lying between here and the mouth of the river all summer; some nearly or quite out of the water, others barely afloat. It is astonishing to think that the Ohio, one of the largest rivers in the world—the Ohio, whose swollen waters some months ago presented a current of fifteen hundred miles in length, and from one to ten in width, and whose depths were almost unfathomable, should now be (comparatively) a small stream, fordable in many places, and literally seeking its way over pebbles to the great Father of Rivers, the Mississippi.

This interruption to our commerce is the more injurious to the western country, as it happens when symptoms of general distress, induced by other causes, are so sensibly felt.

FATAL CONSEQUENCES OF DRUNKENNESS.

This morning between ten and eleven o'clock, a white woman in a state of intoxication, was very severely burnt in a cellar in Water-street, between Spruce and Pine-street. She was immediately taken to the alms-house for medical aid, but her recovery is considered by those who saw her, as extremely doubtful. In this same neighborhood are several tippling shops to which there is a great resort, and it would we well for our constables, if they can spare time, to satisfy themselves and the neighborhood, that these shops are regularly licensed. [Phil. Gaz.

M'Connellsburg, (Penn.) Sept. 3.

The most distressing accident occurred yesterday evening, in the vicinity of our little place, I ever witnessed. A poor couple, who had a large family, lived on the ridge beyond the town; they left their cabin, with three of their children in it, about two o'clock yesterday. In their absence the house took fire, and all three of the children were burnt alive! The eldest was about six, and the youngest upwards of two years old. If you think it would be of service as a caution to people to be more careful, you can publish this truly melancholy occurrence. It was the most heart-rending sight I ever beheld.

From Jamaica papers received at Charleston, (S. C.)

Kingston, Jamaica, July 5.

The schooner Vivid, Bull, belonging to this port, was captured on the morning of the 10th ult. off the Tiger Keys, at the mouth of the Chirequi Lagoon, by the Spanish guarda-costa Porto-Bello, Capt. Jose Pozo, and carried into Porto-Bello the Sunday following. The Vivid's cargo was very valuable, and consisted of dry goods, tortoise-shell, dollars, and gold-dust.

Four days previous to the capture of the Vivid, she spoke the schooner Martha, of this port; the schooner Duke of Manchester, also of this port, was at anchor a few leagues distant—all well.

A letter from Porto-Bello, received in this city, states, that sixty artizans, who had been in M'Gregor's army, had commenced business at Panama; that about 60 privates of the same army, mostly Irishmen, had enlisted in the Spanish regiment of Catalonia, and their officers had been marched to Darien.

About twenty of the British subjects who fell into the hands of the royalists at Porto-Bello, were still employed in repairing the streets, and doing other menial offices about that city; they were not permitted to communicate with the officers of the Sapphire.

It is stated that Aury's squadron were at anchor off Old Providence. One of his privateers had latterly cut out of St. Juan's Roads, a large Spanish brig laden with colonial produce for the United States, and carried her into the above island, where her cargo was disposed of. July 6.

Translated from a letter, dated Panama, 14th May, 1819.

"The present state of affairs cut up all our commerce with the South. The cruizers under the flags of Chili and Buenos Ayres, are so numerous, that we have not one point to trade with.

"Callao has been blockaded since the 13th of March.

"The port of Paita (which lies between Panama and Guiaquil) is theirs; and last night we learnt, by an extraordinary courier, of the capture of four vessels at anchor in the Realijo.

"It is also firmly believed, that the ship Carmin, from San Blas, with upwards of one million of dollars, has been taken.—All this may be attributed to the weakness of our naval force; and we are looking for an immediate blockade."

From the New-York Gazette, Sept. 8.

LATEST FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

We have been favored with the Curacoa Courant of the 7th of August, containing the following:

Accounts from Laguira since our last, state that official intelligence had been received there of the capture of Barcelona, by the Patriotic expedition of Margarita. There were only forty men found in the works at Barcelona when it was surrendered. It seems they defended themselves till the whole of their ammunition was expended, and were every soul afterwards put to death by the conquerors. Goraia, who commanded at Barcelona had sent a detachment of cavalry, consisting of 30 men and a lieutenant, to reconnoitre the enemy, who proceeded to the suburbs of Barcelona, without meeting any opposition; they there surprised a picket of six men and a sergeant, whom they put to death before any alarm could be given. They then advanced into the town, and in like manner surprised a Lieutenant (an English-bman) and ten men who were doing duty at the quarters of General Urdaneta. The Spaniards soon overpowered them, and took the Lieutenant prisoner, and in order to secure him properly, tied him between two of their horses. Urdaneta in the mean time, made his escape out of the house, and gave the alarm; when the Spaniards being obliged to retreat, galloped off with the unfortunate Lieutenant, who, shocking to relate, was literally dragged to pieces.

We are also informed, that Guerern, who commands the Spanish flecheras, lately captured a sloop from St. Eustatia, under Dutch colors, and an English schnr. from St. Thomas, both laden with provisions and clothing for the use of the independents in Barcelona. These vessels were sent into Cumana to be unloaded, and the sloop, it is said, has since arrived at Puerto Cabello, and is offered for sale there.

Pareira, an Indian chief, attached to the Spanish cause, had intercepted 2000 head of cattle, sent by Morino for the supply of Urdaneta's army, and the English expedition from Margarita, of which Urdaneta is commander in chief.

It appears that the accounts from Puerto Cabello, which we gave in our last, relative to an engagement having taken place between the Spaniards and Patriotic naval forces, turns out to be somewhat incorrect. It seems the fleets were for some time in sight of each other, but that neither of them showed any disposition to fight. The Spanish men of war Nymph & Tyger, were both in Puerto Cabello, according to the last accounts.

A letter from Aux-Cayes, dated the 15th of July, says, "M'Gregor, with about 300 men, embarked last night in this road, on board of three or four vessels. It is supposed that he intends to make an attempt to recover Porto Bello. From the dispositions made by Bolivar, to attack the vice-royalty of Santa Fee, it is believed that M'Gregor's expedition will have a favorable result.

The following letter is from an officer on board the United States' frigate Macedonian, at Valparaiso, to his friend in Savannah. It will be read with much interest.

U. States' Ship Macedonian, Valparaiso Bay, 8th March, 1819.

We are still at anchor in this port, but expect to leave it for Lima in a few days. I think it very probable that we shall give up our contemplated visit to the northwest. Judge Prevost, who you recollect was despatched from the United States, for the purpose of putting every thing in a right train in that part of the world, has just returned to this port, and has I understand made such arrangement as will prevent the necessity of our presence there. I do not, however, state this as a fact, but merely as the general impression of my brother officers and myself. We shall, after visiting Lima, pay our respects to the Gallipagos Islands, and make no little slaughter, I apprehend, among the turtles and terrapins, for which these Islands are celebrated.

Since our arrival in these seas, our whole crew has enjoyed a degree of health I never before witnessed on board any ship; we have, at present, but two men on the sick list, one of them from a wound by the accidental discharge of a musket, from which he has nearly recovered. Our ship is in fine order and good discipline, and we have every prospect of a pleasant and valuable cruize.—I think it probable that we shall be absent at least two years from the time of our last sailing from Norfolk, by which time I think I may, with common exertions, calculate on obtaining a considerable knowledge of my profession.

As you will no doubt feel gratified with an account of what has lately occurred in this quarter, I will strive to give you as correct an idea of it as I myself possess.—In my last letter I gave you to understand that the remains of the Royal forces, after the battle of Maipo, had retreated towards the mountains; that a proportion of the Patriot army was occupied in watching them; and that the remainder, to the amount of several thousands, were encamped at the foot of the Andes. The retreating Royalists have since been overtaken, and with the exception of their commander, who escaped with a very small body of followers, have been entirely destroyed by battle or desertion. The Royalists have at present possession of no part of Chili, excepting the fortress of Valdivia, in the mountains, which cut off from all communication with old Spain, is considered of so little consequence as to be scarcely ever mentioned. I also stated in my former letter to you, that the Chilian squadron, under the command of their Admiral, Lord Cochrane, had proceeded off Lima, and in the event of a successful attack on the Royal naval force, was to return to this port for the army, in concert with which an attack was contemplated on Lima. The British frigate Andromache, which has just arrived from Lima, with Judge Provost on board, fell in with Lord Cochrane within twenty leagues of Callao, the port of the capital of Peru, the 15th February; and we learn by her that an immediate attack was contemplated on the shipping in the harbor. Judge Provost states that the Royal squadron was partly dismantled and moored in a situation easy to be assailed. The Patriot force consists of an Indiaman, mounting 60 guns, one frigate of 50, another of 48, and a brig of 22. The Royal squadron consists of two frigates and two sloops. There is no doubt of Lord Cochrane's having made a dash at the batteries and squadron long before this, but the result cannot be known at this place for several weeks, as it generally takes the fastest sailing vessels a month to beat up from Lima to this port against the southerly winds, which constantly prevail on the coast. Thus you find the Royal cause is entirely lost in Chili, and that the Chilians themselves are about attacking a neighboring province. In this situation their military affairs at present stand.—Their civil regulations, as I mentioned in a former letter, amount to nothing—the bayonet is the only law, and the commander of the armies, therefore, rules every thing. Government has no money, and the troops have received no pay for several months past; and there is no telling how long they may be willing to serve on such terms. I fear it will not be long before this country becomes involved in a civil war more bloody than the one lately waged with so much glory. This may be delayed by Cochrane's success, but must take place before long. Discontent rears her head every where, and su-picion, followed by cruelty and oppression, already appears. It is but lately, that a large number of Spanish officers, taken at Maipo, were shot without even the form of a trial, under a plea of a contemplated rise on the Governor and guards, in a town where they quartered—a part of these officers were put to death, while in the act of attacking the person of the Governor, by the citizens and soldiery, who on the alarm, rushed tumultuously into the palace—this was of course to be expected; but shortly after, a number of the principal Spanish officers were drawn out and shot, without a trial—among them was the 2d in command on the bloody field of Maipo, a brave soldier, who by his conduct on that well fought day, gained the applause even of his enemies. The government, of course, are interested in putting the fairest face possible, on this transaction—individuals speak little on the subject, and content themselves with shaking their heads when they hear it mentioned—I fear, when the truth is given to the world, the transaction will be no way creditable to the rulers of Chili. I find no little jealousy existing between the Chilians and Buenos Ayreans, which I think the former have sufficient reason for. It appears to have been the policy of the commander of the united armies (San Martin a Buenos-Ayrean) to render Chili in a measure subservient to Buenos Ayres, by placing as much civil and military authority as possible into the hands of the latter; and by putting aside all the most popular Chilians.—it is but lately that a Colonel Rudriguez, a Chilian, and a deserving favorite, was murdered, when in custody, for some alledged crime, and, although the best face is put on the motive, San Martin is considered by all as the author of the foul deed. I myself heard a Chilian of the first standing exclaim, that, although every thing appeared calm, Chili still remembered, and would avenge the blood of her son. To sum up all in a few words, this country is entirely independent of old Spain, but yet it is not free. The peasantry, a brave hardy race, are so ignorant as to be easily made the dupe of every designing villain, and consequently, the country must be split by party, for the leaders, unlike our patriot forefathers, aim at little more than their own interest. I think that no government but a monarchy can suit them for many years, and a limited one I wish to God they had.

I have lately passed a fortnight at Santiago, the capital of Chili, about 90 miles in the interior. I have also visited a gold mine about 14 leagues from Santiago, and have been enabled to make a tolerable selection of gold and silver ore, with other minerals. When in Santiago, I dined with O'Higgins, the Director of Chili, and was sumptuously entertained.

P. S. I neglected to mention the occurrence of a duel betreen two of our midshipmen a week since, in which one of them a Mr. John B. Abercrombie, of New York, was killed at the first fire. In speaking of the affairs of Chili, I might also have stated that the communication between this province and Buenos Ayres, over the Cordilleras, has been greatly interrupted by the party of Artigas.—and that this government has sent deputies to treat with that officer.

A Yorkshire Tale.

A Yorkshire clown, a sad unlucky dog,
As e'er put hand to plough, or drain'd a bog, [meet,
The parish parson chanc'd one day to
But fail'd to "doff his hat," the priest to greet, [big,
Whereat the Churchman looking mighty
Addressed him thus, and awful shook his wig:
"An't you a pretty fellow, Sirrah? hey?"
"Yes, zur,' cries Hodge, 'so all the lasses say,' [wrought,
"Rascal," exclaims the priest, to phrenzy
"You saucy knave, you're better fed than taught," [may tell,
"That's true," says Hodge, "as any fool
"Because you teach me, but I feeds mysel."

Alex'a. Common Council.

September 13, 1819.

A communication from the Mayor, enclosing the resolutions of the corporations of Georgetown and Washington, relative to the establishment of a Quarantine, transmitted to him by their respective Mayors, was received and read.

Ordered, That the Mayor be added to the committee appointed on his communication relative to the vagrant laws.

Ordered, That Messrs. T. Vowell, Mandeville, Neale and Keith be a committee to examine the side pavements done by Robert Brockett, jun. and to ascertain if the contract was legally made by the late street commissioner.

Ordered, That the auditor issue his warrant, in favor of Alexander Williams, for 63 dollars 75 cents, being the amount paid by him for wood, and charge the same to the general fund.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Police do cause the side stones to be placed, and a gutter to be paved on the north side of Oronoko-street, from the intersection of Washington-street to the eastern boundary of William H. Fitzhugh's lot, and charge the expence to the proprietors, the amount of which shall be deducted from any future paving tax for the property. It is further ordered, That the street be regulated, and the side stones placed so as to secure the gutter agreeable to the instructions of the surveyor, and that Wm. H. Fitzhugh be informed of the intended regulation of the street, previous to the execution of any part of the work.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Police do cause the porch to the watch-house to be painted.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the district of Fredericksburg, in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell, at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next,

4000 Acres of Land,

lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg. The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Semmers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.
JOHN LINTON,
JOHN GIBSON,
PHILIP HARRISON.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS, { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington. Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria. Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria. Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26

For Sale,

TWO tracts of valuable land in Durham Parish, Charles County, Maryland opposite Nanjemoy Reach—one of these tracts of land is bounded on one side by the Potomac, has a valuable fishery, and contains about 360 acres of bottom, with a quantity of wood that ought to be cut.—The other is about three-fourths of a mile from the river, from one half to two thirds covered with wood and valuable white-oak timber, and contains about 700 acres. Both tracts have an orchard of choice fruit. The above land will be sold at Charles County Court, on THURSDAY in the third week of August next at Public sale, if not sold before, at private sale.—The terms will be made known at the sale. Timber or wood may be purchased any time previous to the sale
